

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS AT STAKE WHEN ROUND-UP IS HELD; HERE IS LIST OF WINNERS SINCE FIRST SHOW WAS STAGED

Daring Events Bring Forth Bold Men Who Try Hard for Honors.

Who will be the champions of this year's show? This is the paramount question as the performers vie in track and arena for the world championship which make the Round-Up famous.

Unwilling to relinquish their titles won last year, are Hugo Strickland, winner of the bucking contest; Yakima Canutt, champion bulldogger; Tommy Grimes, winner of the steer roping; Harry Walters, who rode to victory in the pony express; Lorenz Trickey, winner of the cowgirl's relay, and Darrell Cannon, winner of the relay and all-around cowboy championship.

The 1920 winners were, Yakima Canutt, winner of the bucking, Ray McCarroll, winner of the bulldogging, and Lorenz Trickey, champion cowgirl.

Bert Kelly, of Pine Creek, was the winner of the bucking contest in 1919, the first year of the Round-Up. Ernest Cannon was second and Dave Anderson was third. John Spain won the wild horse race.

Fred Spain and Walt Seale won the pony express race and Ella Lazinka, Pendleton girl, the women's relay.

The winners in 1911 were Roy Moss, steer roping; Roy Kelly, cowboy's relay; Buffalo Vernon, bulldogging; and Jason Stanley, pony express. John Spain won the bucking championship and Bertha Blacett was women's champion.

In 1912, the Police Gazette belt, awarded the all-around cowboy championship, was awarded for the first time. It was won by Ed (Hoot) Gibson, now a famous movie actor. He won by 56 points, defeating Sid Seale, with 33.

L. W. Minor, on Angel, won the bucking. Bert Kelley was second and Art Acord third. Steer roping was won by Del Blacett, Jim Couch and Jason Stanley. Bertha Blacett was again women's champion. The bulldogging was won by Art Acord.

In 1913, A. E. McCormack was the bucking champion. McCormack, a cowboy of Goldsmith, Wyoming, after a sensational ride on the buck of "Bear Cat" won first place, with Bob Calvin of Caldwell, Idaho, second, and C. C. Couch, of Elie, Oregon, third. Ed McCarty of Cheyenne, who is still a familiar figure to Round-Up fans of the present day, was the champion steer roper. John Judd also of Cheyenne, held second place.

Nettie Hawn Wins.
Nettie Hawn, of Fresno, California, won in the cowgirls' bucking contest, while Bertha Blacett, later to become the most famous cowgirl in the United States, took second place. Minnie Thompson, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, was third.

"Bite 'em lip" was the slogan years ago just as it was today and steer bulldogging afforded one of the best thrills of the arena. Wallie W. Padgett, of Cheyenne, won first, and the late Del Blacett of Pendleton, who won the bucking championship in after years, was second. L. W. Minor of Wallowa, was given third place.

James Rouch Winner.
Following are other results of that year:

Cowboy Pony Race.
1. Eddie Turk, Union, Ore.
2. H. M. Rettig, Enterprise, Ore.
3. Darrell Cannon, Ritter.

Indian Relay Race.
1. Richard Burke.
2. Max Mox.
3. Lucian Williams.

Steer Roping.
1. Ed McCarty, Cheyenne.
2. John Judd, Cheyenne.

Maverick Race.
Thursday—James Rouch, McKay.
Friday—V. H. Absten, Hood River.
Saturday—Ralph Sullivan, Starkey.

Spain String Wins Cowboy's Relay.
1. E. A. Armstrong, Spain's string, Tolocaset, Oregon.
2. Wade, Blakeley's string, Enterprise, Oregon.
3. Roy Kelly, LeGrow's string, Lowden, Washington.

Pony Express.
1. Braden Gerking, Ritter, Ore.
2. John Baldwin, Pendleton.

Cowgirl's Pony Race.
1. Tillie Baldwin, Pendleton.
2. Hazel Walker, Sawtelle, Calif.
3. Nell McCool, Walla Walla.

Hoot Gibson Wins Cowboy Standing Race.
Thursday—L. Hoot Gibson, Pendleton.
Friday—L. Ben Corbett, La Grande.

Stage Coach Race.
1. John Spain, Tolocaset, Ore.
2. H. W. D. Smith, Union.

Tug of War.
1. Del Blacett.

Quick Change Race.
Thursday—Braden Gerking, Ritter.
Friday—Sammy Garrett, Newalla, Oklahoma.

Barrel Race.
1. Jim Rouch, McKay.
2. Del Blacett, Pendleton.

Wild Horse Race.
Thursday—L. Roy Garoutte, Pendleton.
2. L. W. Minor, Wallowa.
3. Pete Wilson, Riley.

Friday—L. Jack Fritz, Cheyenne.
2. W. B. Shelley, John Day.

Others Win Honors.
Others who won honors in 1914 were as follows:

Cowboys' Relay Race.
1. E. A. Armstrong, Harrington, Washington.
2. Braden Gerking, Ritter.
3. Knapp Lynch, Elma, Montana.

Cowgirls' Relay Race.
1. Ruth Parton, Toppenish, Washington.
2. Fannie Steel, Mitchell, Montana.
3. Bertha Blacett, Pendleton.

Cowgirl's Pony Race.
Thursday—L. Mrs. J. A. Parsons.
2. Lila Smith.
3. Lucile Mulhall.

Friday—L. Lila Smith.
2. Nell McCool.
3. Mrs. Parsons.

Saturday—L. Mrs. Parsons.
2. Mabel DeLong.
3. Nell McCool.

Lee Caldwell Champion.
The year 1915 found three famous Round-Up stars in the lists for the champion bucking contest. Lee Caldwell was successful and won the championship. Yakima Canutt, last year's champion, won second. Jackson Sundown, famous Indian rider, who in 1916 became champion, was forced to content himself with third place.

Frank Cable was the winner in steer bulldogging. Buffalo Vernon taking second place and Frank McCarroll third. Bertha Blacett repeated the 1914 feat and was again acclaimed cowgirl's bucking champion. Next in line for the honor were Peggy Warren and Princess Redbird, a picturesque figure at the show.

Wiers in Contest.
George Wier won the steer roping, with Charles Wier in second place and Red Parker in third.

Other winners in the contents of five years ago were:

Maverick Race.
Buffalo Vernon.
Cowgirl's Pony Race.
1. Ruth Parton.
2. Jessie Drumheller.
3. Lila Smith.

Stage Coach Race.
1. Zibe Morse.
2. Gilbert Minthorn.

Pony Express.
1. Allen Drumheller.
2. Tommy Grimes.
3. Charles Reed.

Cowgirl's Relay.
1. Ruth Parton.
2. Bertha Blacett.
3. Vera McGinnis.

Drumheller Wins Cowboy's Pony Race.
1. Allen Drumheller.
2. Max Gaunt.
3. E. A. Armstrong.

Cowboys' Relay Race.
1. Allen Drumheller.
2. E. A. Armstrong.
3. Bill Abbott.

Cowboys' Standing Race.
1. Sid Seale.
2. Ben Corbett.

Sundown Wins.
In 1916 Jackson Sundown was the winner of the cowboy's bucking championship. Rufus Hollen was second and Broncho Bob Hall, third.

The women's bucking champion was Katie Wilkes, after Katie Canutt, with Peggy Warren second, and Eloise Hastings third. Bulldogging was won by Frank McCarroll, who bested Henry Warren and John Rick, winners of second and third places respectively.

George Wier was winner of the steer roping contest. Ed McCarty was second, Chester Byers third and Dan Clark, livestock agent for the O-W. R. & N., was fourth.

Others Ore Winners.
Other 1916 winners were:

Wild Horse Race.
1. Ben Dobbins.
2. Dave White.
3. Hugh Clarke.

Cowgirl's Relay Race.
1. Mabel DeLong.
2. Bertha Blacett.
3. Katie Wilkes.

Tug of War.
Del Blacett.

Quick Change.
1. Sam Garrett.
2. Eddie McCarty.

Canutt Is Champion.
"Coming events cast their shadows before," and this was true in 1917 when Yakima Canutt, of Penewawa, 1919 bucking champion, won the bucking championship on "Caldesac." Broncho Bob Hall of Independence, on "Angel," won second, while Dave White of Pendleton, took third on P. J. Nutt.

Sharing honors with Canutt was Mildred Douglas of Cheyenne, who won first in the bucking contest for women. Second place was held by Prairie Rose Henderson, of Cheyenne, and third by Ollie Osborn, of Union.

Charles Wier of Monument, won the steer roping contest, while George Wier was second. Sammy Garrett was third.

Paul Hastings Wins.
The bulldogging, always an event of paramount interest, was won by Paul Hastings of Medicine Hat, Jim Lynch of Miles City, Montana, was second, and Lloyd Saunders, of Cheyenne, third. Saunders since 1917 has been a performer at the Round-Up.

Other winners in the various events were:

Cowboys' Relay Race.
1. Nep Lynch, riding J. A. Parsons string.
2. Allen Drumheller, riding his own string.
3. Sleepy Armstrong, riding his own string.

Pony Express Race.
1. Nep Lynch.
2. Braden Gerking.
3. Bob Anderson.

Miss DeLong Winner.
Miss Mabel DeLong won first in the cowgirl's relay race, riding the Drumheller string. Donna Card was second with the Ed McCarty string and Josephine Sherry, riding her own string, took third place.

Hugh Strickland proved himself the bucking champion in 1918, with Arizona, who won second place, and Tex Smith, who took third, as close contestants.

The most spectacular feature of the show that year was the exhibition by Katie Canutt, the slender, wiry black-haired cowgirl, who in 1916 won the women's bucking championship. She won the woman's bucking contest, the cowgirl's relay and the cowgirl's pony in 1918. Ollie Lindsay was second in the bucking contest and Rose Smith third. Bertha Blacett was second in the cowgirl's pony and Jessie Drumheller third. In the relay Donna Card took second and Bertha Blacett third.

McCarroll Winner.
Ray McCarroll was champion bulldogger, while Paul Hastings was sec-

ITS ECONOMY

When You Use Flour Be Sure It is the Best. Don't Forget, It is

WHITE SATIN FLOUR

Made From BLUE STEM WHEAT

Sold at All Grocers.

Manufactured in Pendleton by

Walter's Flouring Mills

ond. Ed McCarty won in the steer roping, with Tommy Grimes second and Phil Yoder third.
Winners in other events were:
Pony Express.
1. Harry Walters.

2. Jack Joyce.
3. Sam Garrett.
Quick Change.
1. Sam Garrett.
2. Jimmy Taylor.
Wild Horse Race.

1. Joe White.
2. John Huffman.
3. Rabelish Brady.
Cowgirl's Standing Race.
1. Bertha Blacett.
2. Lorenz Udey.

Ride 'im, Cowboy!

Scratch 'im deep—and fan 'im with a hat from Alexanders

The last touch to your costume for the arena, the hat to let 'em know you've been away when you get back home—you can't beat the feature Round-Up headgear from this headquarters store.

Colors? Man, oh man!

Gold and purple and sunset red—dark brown or grey if you prefer 'em—and quality guaranteed by us and by Cotrell and Leonard, of Danbury, Conn., makers of men's fine hats for 90 years.

Visit Alexanders, all of you—cowboys, cowgirls and Visitors. There's everything to round-out the garb of the Round-Up.

COME IN, YOU BUCKAROO, AND GET YOURS!

Alexanders
QUALITY SERVICE

PENDLETON, OREGON

DODGE BROTHERS SEDAN

The car's usefulness is admirably in keeping with its innate goodness.

In summer it protects you from heat; in winter it protects you from cold. Day in and day out it insures you against expensive upkeep and repair costs.

Recent improvements have greatly increased its sturdiness and the trim beauty of its body lines.

ELLIS-SCHILLER CO.

Cor. Main and Water Sts.

